INSTITUTE FOR LAW AND FINANCE
Goethe-Universität Frankfurt am Main

Georgieff Capital Scholarship Program

Overview

Under the Georgieff Capital Scholarship Program, qualifying students who wish to be admitted to the LL.M. Finance course at the Institute for Law and Finance can apply for a scholarship. The scholarship comprises a tuition grant in the amount of Euro 10.000 including a three months internship at Georgieff Capital (six weeks between the winter and summer terms and six weeks immediately after the end of the summer term). Only one scholarship will be awarded every year on a strictly discretionary basis.

Requirements

Candidates will have to demonstrate a strong academic record, be fluent in English and must also have a good command of the German language (written and spoken). Their particular interest in corporate finance, including mergers & acquisitions, should be supported by their previous studies of economics, finance and/or corporate law, including a letter of recommendation from their course tutor/professor. They will already have gained some relevant professional work, research or internship experience, have acquired basic accounting and financial modelling skills and be familiar with standard office software.

Applications

Candidates should direct their scholarship application, together with their LL.M. Finance program application, by no later than 31 March 2014 to:
