

Contents

Introduction — V

The Authors — IX

I Resolution Issues in Europe

Elke König

Keynote: The journey to resolvability — 3

Andreas Dombret

A brief progress report on the resolution framework in Europe — 9

Adam Farkas

Resolution in Europe, still some way to go — 14

James von Moltke

Practice and international comparison of resolution regimes — 26

Patrick Kenadjian

Open questions on bank resolution in Europe — 30

II Insurance Company Resolution

Felix Hufeld

Insurance company resolution – no need for additional European regulation — 55

Fausto Parente

Recovery, resolution and macroprudential policy in insurance – The need for European action — 59

Giulio Terzariol

Resolution for insurers – no need to reinvent the wheel — 69

Helmut Gründl

Some thoughts on recovery and resolution in insurance — 75

III Cross-Border Issues

José Manuel Campa

Resolution in Europe: Pending cross-border issues — 87

Wilson Ervin

Jurisdictional trust vs the ‘Prisoner’s Dilemma’... and plotting an escape from the prison — 93

Mark E. Van Der Weide

An American perspective on the cross-border issues in large bank resolution — 100

Thomas F. Huertas

Resolution: Ready to go? — 105

IV CCP Resolution

Steven Maijoor

Keynote: Resilience, recovery and resolution: Three essential Rs for CCPs — 123

Benoît Cœuré

A cooperative approach to CCP recovery and resolution — 132

Joachim Faber

Building on the achievements of the G20 reforms — 138

Daniel Maguire

Considerations on CCP resolution planning — 141

Levin Holle

Resolution of CCPs — 149

V Conclusion

Paul Tucker

Resolution policy and systemic risk: Five entreaties — 157