

INSTITUTE FOR LAW AND FINANCE
GOETHE-UNIVERSITÄT FRANKFURT AM MAIN

Guest Lecture

REHUMANIZING THE CORPORATION IN THE FINANCIAL INDUSTRY

Professor Jaap Winter
University of Amsterdam

As partner of Phyleon Governance and Leadership, Jaap Winter advises boards of executive and non-executive directors on governance and board leadership.

He was President of The Executive Board of The Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam from December 2013 until December 2017. Before that, he was partner of the Amsterdam based law firm De Brauw Blackstone Westbroek.

Jaap is professor of international company law at the University of Amsterdam, professor of Corporate Law, Governance and Behaviour at the Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam and Distinguished Visiting Professor of Corporate Governance at Insead in France.

He was the chairman of the High Level Group of Company Law Experts that advised the EU Commission on Corporate Law and Corporate Governance in the EU in 2001-2002 and he was a member of the Tabaksblat Committee that drafted the Dutch Corporate Governance Code in 2003. Jaap is member of the Supervisory Board of Randstad N.V. and Chairman of the Supervisory Board of the Van Gogh Museum.

DATE AND TIME: TUESDAY, 30 OCTOBER 2018, 7.00 P.M.

Location:

Room "DZ Bank", House of Finance, Goethe-University, Campus Westend, Theodor-W.-Adorno-Platz 3, 60323 Frankfurt am Main

Please register under:
<http://anmeldung.ilf-frankfurt.de>